

Your needs, our services.

KAREN was born in 1999 from a deep passion for flying that became a business.

The Family-run Company, based in Switzerland, has its main bases in Ticino (Gordola, Lodrino and Riazzino) and has over 40 highly qualified and motivated staff.

We offer a wide range of tailored services for Customers Worldwide: Maintenance and repair, CAMO, Initial/Continuous pilot and maintenance engineer training as well as Commercial flights.

We are currently looking to engage a
Aircraft Maintenance Engineer B1.3, C

Work Scope

Staff Certification

Base + Line Maintenance on the following types:

- Agusta A 119/ AW 119 MkII
- Agusta AB 139/ AW 139
- Agusta AB 206/ Bell 206
- Agusta A 109 Series/ AW 109 Series

Position Profile

- proven planning and priority management capabilities
- good communicative and group relational skills
- workload management
- responsibility, team spirit, independence and flexibility
- availability for short/medium duration duty away from base

We offer

- full time and permanent contract
- possibility for professional development
- varied and stimulating activities in a dynamic environment

Work Base

- Lodrino (Switzerland)

Language

- English: good knowledge (B2)

Are you ready for this challenge?

We look forward to receiving your application, including CV and Certificates, to claudia.antonini@karen-sa.com.

Your application will be treated with the utmost confidentiality. Only candidates deemed to be compliant with the desired profile will be contacted.

